"Donlin made a mistake, but he is not the only one who erred, and, while I balieve that he should be punished. I will not allow him to be driven out of baseball." said Mr. Herrmann. "I don't think that there is a chance for Donlin ever to wear a Cincinnati uniform again, but he shall have another chance in the League. As soon as his suspension has expired I think we will find a berth for him with one of the teams."

ONE RECORD OF GIANTS.

The Giants have won 16 of their 33 vice ories from Western teams, the other 3 have whipped but 15 times. New York has lost but five games to the East, while Cincinnati, though playing but half as many, has already dropped seven for the Bluee, as Cleveland will play to the three teams in the rear. This six double-headers, beginning with record will show that thus far New Labor Day.

SECRET OF CUBS' SUCCESS.

Chicago-with a bitting team-is showing Cincinnati the way these days. Recently Pat Egan cornered Manager Kelley and asked him to account for the Cubs' success, and Kel figured it out so: "It's like this: Kking will not permit any
